

Welcome – Willkommen

Thank you for visiting our company

A little info about illumX

We proudly invent, design, and manufacture illuminated POS for some of the world's coolest brands.

Our exceptional product design team is passionate about finding new and impactful ways to bring brands to life through illumination.

With extensive expertise in POS electronics, we create commercially intelligent displays that communicate brand messages clearly and most importantly, help sell more product, that's the whole point, right ?

We're known for outstanding service, from initial design renderings often same day, rapid quotations to the fastest manufacturing lead-times in the industry.

illumX products are produced at our wholly-owned factory in China, with the option to trade directly in local currency.

Give illumX a try, we're confident you won't look back.
